

Kamloops
Naturalist
Club

BC Nature Camp - Land of Fire and Ice: Wells Gray Provincial Park

Additional Resources

For those considering this camp or future visits, the following are fantastic guides to Wells Gray:

Exploring Wells Gray Park - Volume VII (2023) - by Roland Neave, available at:

<https://wgoclearwater.com/products/exploring-wells-gray-park-volume-vii>

Nature Wells Gray: A visitors' guide to the park (2004) – by Trevor Goward & Cathie Hickson, out of print but available used, for example at:

<https://www.amazon.ca/Nature-Wells-Gray-visitors-guide/dp/155105065X>

Ways of Enrichment website at: <https://www.waysofenrichment.net/>

Optional Adventures

These must be booked directly with outfitters as soon as possible as these are popular with tourists. More details to follow on registration form):

1. Wells Gray Adventures - Hut to Hut Hike

- 5-day Hike starting July 15 - $1,325 + taxes per person (can request 10% discount if we reach 8+ bookings from BC Nature camp participants)
- <https://www.skihike.com/> - Contact: Arel Eakins, info@skihike.com

2. Clearwater Lake Tours

- www.clearwaterlaketours.com, Contact: info@clearwaterlaketours.com
- 2 boats that can carry 12 passengers each. If you fill the boat you pay for 11

3. Horseback riding at Wells Gray Guest Ranch

- <https://www.wellsgrayranch.com/>, Contact reservation@wellsgrayranch.com

4. Whitewater Rafting – multiple outfitters, see list here:

- <https://wellsgray.ca/things-to-do/on-the-water/whitewater-rafting/>

Note: If participants book an optional adventure following the camp, they can request accommodation for the Sunday night at no extra cost (checking out Monday, July 15). No meals will be provided after lunch on July 14.